

Garde Wilson Lawyers Imparts Expertise at Deakin Law Students' Society Family and Criminal Law Panel 2024

Garde Wilson Lawyers proudly announces its participation as a distinguished panelist at the Deakin Law Students' Society's Family and Criminal Law Panel for 2024 sponsored by Leo Cussen Centre for Law, held on April 11, 2024, at Deakin Burwood Campus. The event, aimed at providing invaluable insights into the legal landscape, brought together esteemed legal professionals to engage with aspiring law students.

Garde Wilson Lawyers, renowned for its commitment to excellence and unwavering dedication to serving its clients, showcased its expertise in family and criminal law during the panel discussion. The firm's representative and the Principal Attorney, Zarah Garde Wilson, offered profound insights and shared invaluable experiences from her 23 years of experience practicing in criminal defence law, enlightening the audience about the complexities and challenges within these legal domains.

The Family and Criminal Law Panel provided a platform for aspiring law students to interact directly with leading practitioners in family and criminal law, gaining firsthand knowledge of the intricacies involved in practicing law in these specialised areas. Through insightful discussions and engaging dialogue, attendees had the opportunity to broaden their understanding of the legal profession and gain practical insights that will undoubtedly shape their future careers.

Garde Wilson Lawyers reaffirms its commitment to nurturing the next generation of legal professionals and empowering them with the knowledge and skills necessary to excel in their careers. By actively participating in events such as the Deakin Law Students' Society Family and Criminal Law Panel, the firm continues to uphold its mission of fostering excellence and innovation within the legal community.

For more information about Garde Wilson Lawyers and its commitment to excellence in legal practice, please visit www.gardewilson.com.au.

About Garde Wilson Lawyers:

Garde Wilson Lawyers is a prominent law firm renowned for its criminal law expertise and holds a track record of success as both solicitors and barristers for their clients. With a team of experienced and dedicated legal professionals, the firm is committed to delivering exceptional legal services as well as highly specialised courtroom representation in all criminal court jurisdictions.

For media inquiries, please contact:

Mitch Fraser

Clerk

Garde Wilson Lawyers

04 5581 0444

mitch@gardewilson.com.au